

AUTHORS AND ADVOCACY FOR MONETARY JUSTICE

You are invited to a hearing and debate in which we examine the advocacy for which we should be responsible as the rich poor gap widens remorselessly and planetary stewardship eludes us.

October 10 th 6-9 pm.

at

The John Marshall Hall,
Christ Church
27 Blackfriars Rd
London SE1 8DP

- 150 yards south of Blackfriars Bridge.
- 200 yards north of Southwark Jubilee line station. on Blackfriars Rd.
- 7 minute cut through from Waterloo if you find in your AtoZ
- 7 Minute walk south across the bridge from Blackfriars Station
- NB Street numbers are unusual 27 is opposite 220!!!!!!!!!!
-

Authors of recently published studies of ways to inclusive justice will each speak to their work - 6.15 - 7.15pm leaving us with 3 key points to discuss - 7.30 – 9pm

Contributing authors:

Ellen Brown [USA] – 'The Web of Debt - the shocking truth about our money system -- the sleight of hand that has trapped us in debt and how we can break free.'

Rodney Shakespeare – 'The Modern Universal Paradigm'

John Bunzl – 'People-Centred Global Governance - Making it Happen!'

Robert Corfe – 'Deism and Social Ethics - the role of religion in the third millenium'

Bruce Nixon – 'Living System – making sense of sustainability'

Cost £5 (optional) to defray expenses.

Note:

Identifying the disturbing message we must convey without building up negative and defensive, (even offensive) resistance.

How do we move from "We believe in this and that." to acting.

Established social systems persist by virtue of a kind of immune system which tends to destroy or isolate information (signals) which are critical of its current state.

RSVP to help administration of the evening